Community Information Fair

10:00 – 16:00 16 June 2017 Smithford Way

UNA Cov will be running a stall. Anyone who would like to help handing out fliers or signing people up for the newsletter would be very welcome.

UNA Coventry Birthday Party and AGM

12:00 – 14:30 Sat 17 June 2017 Queens Road Baptist Church

Help UNA Cov celebrate our fantastic first year with a party! Lunch at 12:00 and AGM about 13:00. We plan to go through the boring bits as quickly as possible. More Committee members will be especially welcome!

Free wine and cake will be available.

Remembering Srebrenica

10:30 27 June 2017 Central Library

Why were 8372 mostly Muslim men and boys massacred in Srebrenica in 1995? What lessons can be learnt and how can we prevent prejudice turning into hatred and violence in future?

This workshop will be run by Balbir Sohal who has recently returned from visiting Srebrenica and has wide experience in teaching and training.

Schools Peace & Justice Forum

13 July 2017

This group engages schools, teachers and young people in peace-related issues. We are working on a set of on-line resources to help teachers. More information:

UN Intern Q&A

14:00 – 16:00 21 Oct Online Event

The UN has many interns who gain valuable experience spending 6-12 months working in a UN office, but without pay. At this event interns and ex-interns will share their experience with anyone who is considering applying to become interns. What are the benefits? What are the problems?

This event will be broadcast on YouTube where you will be able to watch the interns and ask questions via an interactive panel or via social media. You can also register to join this event online either as a delegate (seeking information) or as an intern.

Cine UNACov Launch

8 Nov (provisional date)

Cine UNACov is an exciting new project where we will screen highly acclaimed, award-winning documentaries or feature films relevant to a specific UN issue followed by a Q&A with senior UN officials and others connected to the film or to the issue in question.
