Young People's Attitudes to Religious Diversity

Edited by Elisabeth Arweck

Hb: 978-1-472-44430-1 | £95.00

Series: AHRC/ESRC Religion and Society Series

This book closes a gap in knowledge about young people's attitudes to religious diversity, and reports data gathered across the whole of the UK as well as comparative chapters on Canada, USA and continental Europe. Reporting findings from both qualitative and quantitative research which reveal, for example, the importance of the particular social and geographical context within which young people are embedded, the volume addresses young people's attitudes towards the range of 'world religions' as well as non-religious stances and offers an interdisciplinary approach through the different analytical perspectives of the contributors.
